CONDITIONS ON WHICH STAMPS ARE RECEIVED FOR EXAMINATION

Every reasonable care is taken of specimens sent in for examination, but they are received and will be dealt with subject to the following conditions:

1. The Committee shall be at liberty at its sole discretion to forward any specimens received by it to any expert (whether residing in Australia or abroad) for examinations thereof and observations thereon.
2. Neither the Society nor, except for his/her own wilful act as distinguished from carelessness or negligence, shall any member of the Committee be in any way liable to the owners or any other person interested:-
 - a. For the loss or damage to any specimen by whomsoever (including any employee or assistant/s of the Society or any expert or any photographer to whom the same may be sent) caused, or for the acts or defaults of the Government or Postal Agency of this or any other country.
 - b. For the results of any opinion which the Committee may express as to any specimen sent in.

In these conditions the word "person" and the pronouns "his/her", in relation thereto shall include a corporation, firm, or two or more individuals of either sex.
